
PROGRAM

for the antinuclear spring meetings

You can write your first name / nickname, or that of your crew; it's convenient for easily finding or not losing your program:

This isn't the welcome booklet, which itself isn't the program; the program here is different... Let's not mix it up with the welcome booklet... So, is that clear?

Because we used the same image and fonts for both brochures; it's easy to confuse the program with the welcome booklet.

And by the way, I said "brochure," but brochure mainly refers to the things printed in the corridor towards the multi-room and a bit on the mezzanine next to the kids' area. For this printed thing, we just call it a "program," and for the welcome booklet, it's just called a "welcome booklet."

Don't get confused. Well, worst-case scenario, you can go to the reception (in the corridor towards the multi-room at the resistance house) and ask for help to avoid confusion.

Well, and a quick, well-made summary.

Important :Only workshops in the multi-room are guaranteed to be translated in english. Some other events will be translated like the two special days of la gare on friday and sunday. For more details, don't hesitate to contact the translation team.

day by day program

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17th

Day at the House of Resistance

11 am – 1 pm

Welcome plenary in the barn of the Resistance House (Bure).

1pm-2:30pm : LUNCH

We know it's late for a mealtime, but we promise, it's only on Wednesdays. The rest of the week, it won't be the same, you'll see.

2:30 pm – 3:30pm : legal briefing

It's the first one of the week – don't miss it! All the important information compiled about police surveillance/repression during the week.

3:30pm - 5pm

- Transmission of the song "Living in Bure" in the multi-room (Resistance House, Bure).
- Abandoning harmful work - discussion on paths of desertion from harmful professions in the Nuage (Resistance House, Bure).

5:30pm : Small group times (rock times)

Proposal for a small group time to talk about one's day.

9pm :

- Screening - Greenham Common struggle, led by an eco-feminist collective, in the multi-room (Resistance House, Bure).

«Documentary film that we have put together ourselves about the Greenham Common struggle. This fight began in England in the 1980s against the installation of nuclear missiles. After the screening, there will be a time for discussion about the film and the significant role of women in this battle, which took many forms, both fierce and festive, and is very inspiring. »

There will also be songbooks available from the film if anyone is keen on singing into the wee hours. The documentary lasts 1 hour; it's a compilation of archives from that time selected by the collective. The documentary is in English with French subtitles.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17th

End of the day at the Augustine

4pm – 10pm : International Day of Peasant Struggles at l'Augustine (Mandres-en-Barrois).

- 16h-18h :Seed and young plant exchange.
- 18h : Discussion and drinks - Who's walking on whose head?

Reflection on movements in the agricultural world. Contests in the agricultural and peasant world in France and Europe. Who are the actors, what are the issues, what are the methods? What commons in the contestation, what commons in agricultural policy? What are the political results of this phase of struggles in winter 2023/2024? After a review of the recent months' protests and the positions of the main unions, we want to share our respective opinions on current agricultural policy. There will be snacks and an info stand from the sowers, as well as a seed and young plant exchange open from 4 pm.

Day by day program

THURSDAY, APRIL 18TH

Morning

8h30 am – 9h30 am : Jogging - departure from the Resistance House.

10 am – 12 pm :

- Animals Hate Nuclear - in the Nuage (Resistance House, Bure)

The nuclear industry would very much like to portray itself as eco-friendly. It also wants us to believe that it is not harmful to non-human animals (even beneficial). This conference, drawn from a brochure, proposes a non-exhaustive inventory of interactions between non-human animals and nuclear energy. Spoiler alert: Animals suffer greatly at various stages of the nuclear process. But sometimes, they also compromise the security of nuclear sites...

- Training and preparation for the conflicts & aggressions group - in the multi-room (Resistance House, Bure)
- "How to respond to your Uncle Jančovič supporter" - in the barn (Resistance House, Bure)

This is a participatory and interactive workshop in the form of forum theater, aimed at addressing the numerous remarks that anyone campaigning against nuclear power has heard at least once (e.g., "but nuclear power is a decarbonized energy source, it will be valuable for us to address climate change" or "but if France exits nuclear power, it will end up like Germany and return to coal"). Through this workshop, we hope to provide practical tools to participants to know how to refute such fallacious arguments that are frequently heard, and to leave with a more comprehensive understanding of how the nuclear industry operates.

10 am – 4 pm : Day at the Big Magic Hen (Biencourt)
max 30 persons

- 10am-12pm : Anti-nuclear satire songwriting workshops
- 2pm – 4:30pm : Transcription on the computer via software to create a fantastic karaoke "Hell's Anti-nuclear Autinuk" to be spread throughout France! We can continue writing songs in the afternoon or start transcribing in the morning, really it doesn't matter. Catch-up workshop on Saturday at the same time as activism. You can also write satire songs in your spare time, of course.

12 pm – 13:30pm : LUNCH

day by day program

THURSDAY, APRIL 18th

Afternoon

1:30pm-3:30pm

- Discovery walk of the Cigéo site - departure from the Resistance House (Bure). A walking tour to explore the surroundings of Bure in their nuclear and anti-nuclear aspects.
- Level 1 custody training - in the multi-room (Resistance House). Understanding basic information on how a custody process unfolds, rights during custody, and the aftermath of custody... etc...
- Animate Your Workshop - in the Nuage (Resistance House)

We will start from our individual barriers and motivations to collectively empower ourselves to lead workshops. Sharing multi-practical tools. Presentation of the various possible workshop formats.

4 pm – 6 pm :

- Gender, it questions me - in the multi-room (Resistance House)

Come meet and discuss with people who don't feel quite comfortable with the gender assigned to them at birth. It's open to questioning individuals, those still strongly tied to gender roles, as well as trans, non-binary, queer, butch, etc. Attendees can introduce themselves a bit and share their situation, and depending on the number, engage in small discussions.

In a chosen LGBTQIA+ safe space.

- HA-VL show - in the barn (Resistance House)

High Activity Long Life (HA-VL) ... Philippe Bouvet is a communicator: his job is to make you dream with a giant nuclear waste bin. And he does his job well. Even when everything goes awry and a supernatural delivery woman imposes the radioactive waste itself on stage, Philippe pushes his limits and invents the absurd to save the day, maintain appearances, and convince you ... no matter the cost.

Work-in-progress show (60 min) - recommended for ages 16 and up
Trigger warning: morbidity, greenwashing, toxic sex

6:15 pm : Small group time (rock times)

Proposal for a small group time to talk about one's day.

7pm – 8:30 pm : DINNER

Thursday evening

6 pm – 12 am :

- Weekly bar Le Bois Lejus – at the Augustine (Mandres-en-Barrois)

Fixed-price meal and alcoholic beverages

9pm : Shows & screening

- Quiz: Nuclear family or Nuclear Power Plant? Followed by the musical comedy "Nuclé'hair" - in the barn (Resistance House)
- Presentation of the struggle using archive films on CIGEO - at the gare (Luméville-en-Ornois)

Presentation of the CIGEO project and the history of the struggle using excerpts from feature-length and short films in French with subtitles in English or German (Trash Life - 2015, summer 2016-autumn 2017, evictions of February 22, 2018 ... and if desired, other short films can be added).

day by day program

FRIDAY, APRIL 19th

Morning

8:30am-9:30 am : Jogging - departure from the Resistance House.

10 am – 12 pm

- Journey to the mine and beyond: a 45-minute gestural conference followed by a discussion on struggles against lithium mines - in the multi-room (Resistance House, Bure)
- Gardening in the ruins - what gardens in a toxic world? - in the nuage room (Resistance House)

"What gardens in a toxic world?" That's the difficult and necessary question addressed in the book "Gardening in the Ruins." Among all sources of pollution, nuclear contamination poses one of the most colossal risks to our gardens (and our lives). It has already spread its poison in all our soils. The author, Bertille Darragon, offers a workshop to learn more about the current situation, the consequences on plants and the food chain, and the prospects for gardeners.

- Activist climbing workshop - at the Affranchie (Mandres-en-Barrois)

The idea is to learn rope climbing in a barn. It's accessible to everyone. There will also be an explanation on how to climb in a wheelchair.

12 pm – 1:30pm : LUNCH

- In -

Special day in La Gare

10am-12pm

- Presentation of la Gare and visit of the site, discussion:

Presentation of "La Gare," through its history by different people who have brought it to life, what is happening there at the moment, and the prospects for defending it in these times of expropriations. Visit of the site, from its built spaces to its beautiful limestone meadow.

day by day program

FRIDAY, APRIL 19th

Afternoon

1:30pm – 3:30pm

- Phone Security - in the Nuage (Resistance House, Bure)

Conference format starting from police surveillance on phones and covering issues of geolocation, networks, operating systems. We'll discuss security tools and risk reduction: encryption, anonymity, and phones, whether in software or in our behaviors. Accessible to everyone with or without a smartphone.

- 1:30pm-2:30pm : legal briefing – in the barn (Resistance House, Bure)

The important information for the week. Don't miss this briefing, especially if you didn't attend the first one.

4pm-6pm

- Consequences of the Fukushima disaster - in the multi-room (Resistance House)

With collectives connected to the situation in Japan - "Our Distant Neighbors" and "Yosemono".

- Writing workshop - max 12 people - in the Nuage (Resistance House)

Description soon available

6:15pm : Criée in the barn (Resistance House, Bure)

7pm – 8:30pm : DINNER

9pm :

- Magic show: "Rehearsal" (la Cie du Jeu Visible) - in the barn (Resistance House)

An illusionist invites you to attend the rehearsal of an unfinished show. He keeps his script close at hand, tries and improvises card tricks whose endings he doesn't know. The illusionist seems obsessed with the famous Lost and Found Card Trick. Between magic tricks and mise en abyme, "Rehearsal" is an exploration of chaos, loss, and our need for the sacred.

- Program at the 3 Valleys! Karaoke and disco mix at the 3 Valleys bar in Tréveray

- In parallel -

Special day in La Gare Friday, april 19th

1:30pm-3:30pm:

- Trainstopping, intervention in rail transport

Blockade and sabotage of rail traffic in the context of the anti-nuclear movement - resistance to nuclear transports has become for many the symbol of the German anti-nuclear movement in its last active phase (1990-2011). The conference will attempt to give a brief overview of the historical evolution as well as the practices implemented. An abbreviated and illustrated version of the exhibition of the same name, which was visible since 2019 at the former Luméville station and which unfortunately is no longer in a particularly presentable state.

4pm-6pm

- Walk along the railway track: departure from the gare.

An informative excursion that will address the construction project of the Castor line for CIGEO. In the second part, we want to specifically focus on this regional construction project (status of preparatory work, timeline planning, line construction, etc.). Participation in both modules is useful but not mandatory. The walk is not accessible to people with reduced mobility.

7pm – 8:30pm : DINNER

9pm :

- Storytelling evening in la gare

We gather at the station around the fire to share tales that we've read or written and want to share. Before us all gathered or in small groups, we can read or have read stories that touch us, that fascinate us, that amuse us, that relieve us, that keep us in suspense. If conditions permit, we may also have a small storytelling writing workshop.

day by day program

SATURSDAY, APRIL 20th

Morning

8:30am-9:30 am : Jogging - departure from the Resistance House.

10 am – 4 pm :

- activism – in la Poule (Biencourt)

Linocut, making visuals, signs, etc. Departure at 9:15 am from the Resistance House

10 am – 12 pm

- Techno-critique and Anti-nuclear - in la gare (luméville-en-orinois)

Technocritique, what is it? Reactionary political deadlock or essential element for a coherent and effective critique of Nuclear and its world? Come speak ill of industrial society with us!

- Ecology Queer Workshop-Walk - Departure from the barn (Resistance House)

Canelle is organizing this walk to discuss and learn more about the diversity of genders and sexualities in the living world around us. Let's meet the surrounding flora and fauna, deconstruct nature as a cis-heteronormative space, and share our experiences of struggles and queer ecologies together!

- From the depths of my heart: news about Cigéo and anti-nuclear struggles in southern Meuse - in the multi room (Resistance House)

Follow-up on the news about the expropriations conducted by Andra.

- Presentation and discussion with ORAAJ (Revolutionary Anti-Racist Anti-Patriarchal Jewish Organization) - in the Nuage (Resistance House)

Discussion with ORAAJ, presentation of the collective. How to build emancipatory struggles (anti-racist, anti-patriarchal, anti-capitalist) that integrate the fight against anti-Semitism? How does the collective articulate decolonial struggles, anti-racism, and recognition of anti-Semitism on the left.

12pm – 1:30pm : LUNCH

day by day program

SATURDAY, APRIL 20th

Afternoon

1:30pm-6pm

- Cross-discussion: How to fight against nuclear power? - in the barn (Resistance House)

Plenary session to address anti-nuclear struggles.

4pm-6pm

- Writing workshop to prepare for the open stage on Sunday (9 PM) - in the Nuage and in the surpigeonnier (Resistance House)

In chosen mix without cis men.

5pm – 6pm :

- Know that I expect nothing from your institution - in the multi room (Resistance House)

Theatrical piece evoking a trial that took place in Bure a few years ago. It speaks of opposition to the nuclear waste disposal project and the world that comes with it, attacking the judicial system.

4pm-8pm:

- Program of the 3 Valley

Afternoon and evening board games at the 3 Vallées bar in Tréveray.

4pm: Board games for all ages

6pm: Narrative games - telling and building a story together Ages 14 and up - 30-45min per game.

6:15pm : Small group times

Proposition d'un temps en petits groupes pour parler de sa journée

7pm-8:30pm : DINNER

9pm :

- Boom Night! - in the multi-purpose room (Resistance House)

On the agenda, three concerts: a polyphonic choir, a poetic-experimental solo, a concert by the Freemeuses, icons of the southern Meuse!

To end the party, we can set up a self-managed phone on the speakers!

day by day program

SUNDAY, APRIL 21th

Matin

8:30am-9:30 am : Jogging - departure from the Resistance House.

10am – 12am :

- A Belgian Future CIGEO? Information exchange and sharing of experiences - in the Nuage (Resistance House).

The Belgian state has announced a burial project, it's very vague but it's like the beginnings of CIGEO in the 1980s. Context + group discussions on the strategies that have worked in France, which ones to avoid, and their potential application in Belgium.

- Decolonize Feminism - in the multi-room (Resistance House)

Is anti-racism a vague and distant notion for you? Are you concerned about these issues and haven't had the opportunity to express yourself on the subject? Or are you simply interested in the topic? Come join our workshop during the spring week! This awareness-raising workshop aims to deconstruct biases and racist prejudices and to train in anti-racism through important concepts for us. The program includes a workshop structured around interactive games and popular education. We're looking forward to seeing you there!

12 pm - 1:30 pm : LUNCH

1:30pm-3:30pm

- Ecofeminism, Incest, and Nuclear - chosen mixity of people affected by incest or accompanying persons affected - maximum 12 people

Starting at l'Affranchie at 2:00 PM, we'll leave together at 1:25 PM on foot from the Resistance House. People will be available to listen if needed.

In the same way that ecofeminism established a link between violence towards minorities and the planet, the rape and the destruction of ecosystems, I propose to think about a link between nuclear power and incest.

Both nuclear power and incest are so pervasive, massive, and dangerous that they lead to powerlessness and denial. The goal is to create a space for writing and speaking. A first step (which could continue over time) to open up new angles of analysis and attack against these two oppressions.

day by day program

SUNDAY, APRIL 21th

Après-midi

1:30pm-3:30pm

- Worksop R.E.R. - Racialized People in Rural Areas* - in the nuage (House of Resistance, Bure)

Being a racialized person in the countryside and in places of struggle (life, survival, well-being, and collective organization).

This workshop, in chosen mixed-race spaces for people experiencing racism, aims to be a discussion about minority experiences in the countryside and in places of struggle in rural areas. The idea is to exchange experiences in spaces where the majority is white and to imagine paths for collective organization. This workshop is also open to racialized individuals who do not live in the countryside or in places of struggle but are interested in this theme.

* In chosen mixed-race spaces for people experiencing racism

4pm-6pm:

- workshop Ableism, Activism, & Disability – in multi (Resistance House)
- Big Story / Little Story on Anti-nuclear and Feminism - in the espace nuage (Resistance House)

A "Big / Little Story" on Anti-nuclear and Feminism. The goal is to create small groups of 3, and in each of these groups, each person shares an event from the Big Story (the one with dates and all) related to anti-nuclear/feminism that has impacted them; and an event from the Little Story (our own life) related to these themes. Then, we'll have a big presentation where we construct a huge timeline with everyone's dates!

6:15pm – Small group times

Proposal for a small group session to talk about one's day

7pm-8:30pm : DINNER

9pm :

- Open scene – in multi

Special day in la Gare

Sunday, april 21th

10am - 12pm

- The Fight Against the High Voltage Direct Current (HVDC): Sabotage of Power Lines as a Political Action Field

Forty years ago, EDF (Électricité de France) said, "If nuclear power plants can be protected by barbed wire and possibly riot police, it is not the case for [HVDC] pylons." What is the situation today? Drawing from the history of the fight against the Cotentin-Maine HVDC line in La Manche and other stories gathered here and there, the idea of this workshop is to reflect on what the implications might be in terms of strategy and continuity of the struggle. First module: presentation and debate based on demands, press articles, and other texts on the subject.

1:30pm-3:30pm

- Anti-HVDC Struggle Walk and Presentation: 2nd Module - Walk on the Same Theme

A pedagogical, informative, and entertaining journey. Notes: Walk not accessible; in case of adverse conditions (weather, repression situation), a replacement activity on the same theme will take place at the train station.

4pm - 6pm

- Discussion of the practices and offensive tactics of the anti-Cigeo struggles.
Retrospective and perspectives. What actions have existed in the past and what echoes today for the current struggle?

Since the beginning of the ANDRA installation in the south of the Meuse, there has been resistance against the major nuclear project to bury radioactive waste called Cigéo. For more than 25 years, demonstrations have been organized, the local population is informed of the dangers, legal trials are conducted by organizations. Alongside this much-needed work of activists, direct actions and acts of sabotage are regularly carried out by autonomous groups in the region and beyond against this project. There are many forms of resistance: tags, brochures, illegal posters, decommissioning of installations, material damage to infrastructure, etc. If there is a fairly widespread "secret joy" within the movement... Sometimes even an open sympathy for these acts, it is rare to seriously debate this militant practice involving more risks. We want to take a closer look at some of these often nocturnal activities, from the point of view of their concrete practice, but also from the point of view of the strategies that underlie them (insofar as they are disseminated with press releases by the authors). We hope with this workshop, to contribute modestly to giving a voice to a part of this movement which, for obvious reasons, cannot express itself publicly, and in its name.

Day by day program

MONDAY, APRIL 22TH

Morning

8:30am-9:30 am : Jogging - departure from the Resistance House

10am-3:30pm

- Support & Recovery Network Workshops – in la Poule (Biencourt)

Within the network, we have two types of missions:

- * provide "psycho-emotional first aid" in contexts of high conflict (especially during actions), especially in the face of repression
- * Promote a culture of care in an activist environment through training and awareness-raising sessions on issues of militant psycho-emotional distress and the consequences that can result from it in the short and long term.

We are activists, we are not mental health professionals. As some of them are part of the legal team or medic team, of the canteen, we have done prevention and psychological and emotional support

10am-12pm : Understanding reactions to a high-stress situation – 12 people max

1:30pm-3:30pm : Sharing of psycho-emotional tools – The Wheel of Resilience – 25 people max

10am – 12pm :

- Decolonial Ecology: Surveying the "Uranium Atlas" – in multi-room (House of Resistance)

This review provides an overview of the consequences of uranium extractivism. Nearly 70% of these mines are located on the land of Aboriginal peoples; This is also the story of the resistance of these peoples.

- Electric cars and the battery industry – in the Nuage (house of resistance)
- Surveying to nourish anti-nuclear and feminist struggles – at l'Affranchie (Mandres-en-Barrois)

In chosen mix without cisgender guys.

We will explore articles that analyze from a feminist point of view certain moments of anti-nuclear struggles and the social reality of nuclear power. The discussions that will result from these readings will aim to inspire current mobilizations through our collective reflections.

12pm – 1:30pm : LUNCH

day by day program

MONDAY, APRIL 22th

Afternoon

1:30pm – ... :

- Walk to recognize plants and their use – departure from the gare

3pm-6pm

- History of Chooz's Struggle – at la gare

Screening-discussion with "les Zarchives Charlotte". These are raw documents from rushes that address the genesis of the movement against the Chooz nuclear power plant in the face of the propaganda of the authorities and the nucleocrats. In addition to this workshop; excerpts from radio shows ("ça costera cher de nous foutre en l'air", Radio Primitiveau, etc.) and excerpts from films and images ("Les nuits câlines", "Les clochards de chooz").

4pm-6pm

- Videoconferencing: fight against the burial of nuclear waste in Canada / Turtle Island – in multi room (Maison de Résistance, Bure)

Videoconferencing with a person fighting against a project equivalent to Cigeo in Canada to talk about the processes put in place there to impose the project. Translations of documents of struggles or arguments against nuclear waste burial projects will also be available.

- Rights in Police Custody Workshop, Level 2 – in the Nuage (House of Resistance)

To deepen our rights in police custody, to reflect on different strategies related to the denial of identity, to better understand police repression.

6:15 pm: Criée in the barn (house of resistance)

7pm-8:30pm : DINNER

9pm :

- Concert of Cloudy – in la gare
- Récolte d'amourage – a spectacle – animation experience that is participatoryly spectacular, – in a multi-room (house of resistance)

day by day program

TUESDAY, APRIL 23TH

Morning

10am – 4pm : Day at the Poule(Biencourt) – 20 persons max

Initially, it was the book "Women Against Missiles", but in reality the subject is emotions.

10 am – 12 pm : Reading and surveying Chapter II: "An Intimate Nightmare" and discussing what it causes, evokes for us. With the idea of detaching oneself from the binary side of the basic approach.

2pm-4pm : Collective writing around our dreams – nightmares – emotions of queers against nuk

The overall idea of this workshop is to take time to talk about our emotions. That's why we decided to spend a whole day at La Grosse Poule Magique (the big magic hen in french) together. The book is a medium to help us expel our emotions and talk about our nightmarish intimacies around this world and the helplessness, anger, fear, rage and determination that nuclear power provokes. We will make small groups so that we can all talk and express ourselves.

10 am – 12 pm :

- Social-Revolutionary Perspectives on the Anti-Nuclear Movement – in the multi-room (House of Resistance)

Beginning in the 1970s, anarchist and libertarian groups began to intervene with a revolutionary social perspective in the anti-nuclear movement, which until then had been mainly marked by peace activists, civil rights activists, and Christian humanists. What analyses and hopes were linked to this approach and to what extent did they come true? Is the concept still valid today as a point of reference for radical environmental movements, despite a fundamentally different starting point? And if so, what are the strategic steps for us?

- Anti-nuclear coordination time – in the barn (house of resistance)

Talking about the April 27 demonstration, preparing banners, brainstorming, what to do on October 12 as an anti-nuc' action

12h – 13h30 : LUNCH

day by day program

TUESDAY, APRIL 23TH

Afternoon

1pm-4pm

- Immortal infusion – in the Nuage – max 16 people

An immortal infusion is a kind of talking circle around death and mourning. It lasts about 3 hours.

- 1:30pm-4pm : Extractivism Workshop – in multi (Resistance House, Bure)

The principle is to first explain how nuclear power works in broad terms, and therefore why it consumes radioactive metal, and therefore why the nuclear industry is intimately dependent on the mining industry. Then we do a participatory workshop in groups to understand what the impact of an average conventional mine (gold, potassium and coal) is in terms of waste and energy consumption.

4pm-6pm

- Screening-Discussion: Further Investigation on Nuclear Waste (October 2023) – In Nuage (House of Resistance)

It deals with the issue of waste: a bit CIGEO, the Hague, the trafficking of French waste in Russia, Tricastin, nuclear propaganda and bought journalists, cancers following military tests in Polynesia. The screening can be followed by a discussion if desired. The film is in French, with no subtitles.

- Review time / return of the week / debriefing of the meetings – in the multi

6:15pm : Small group times

Proposal for a small group session to talk about one's day

7pm-8:30pm : DINNER

9pm +

Before heading back to your homeland, come and tap your feet at the station for the boom boom party!

- 3 concerts followed by 3 DJs who will play for us until 3am! A cocktail of precarious pop, northern rap, and electro, followed by DJ sets sometimes reggaeton sometimes techno it's going to be great! (see full description of the groups at the end of the page)

Organize your own week !
